

Southampton Center Partners with The Hamptons International Film Festival to Bring Contemporary and Classic Films to Southampton Village

SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y., June 25, 2013 – Southampton Center, located at 25 Jobs Lane in the heart of Southampton Village, and The Hamptons International Film Festival today announced a partnership to co-present the inaugural season of FILM @ Southampton Center this July and August.

FILM @ Southampton Center will include classic favorites as well as highly anticipated independent films before they are released in theaters. Screenings will take place outdoors on Friday nights beginning July 12 – August 23 and indoors on select Saturdays in July and August. All FILM @ Southampton screenings are FREE and open to the public.

"We are thrilled to present FILM @ Southampton Center in partnership with The Hamptons International Film Festival," said J. Whitney Stevens, Southampton Center Board Chair. "We cannot think of a more natural partner for this program and look forward to a long relationship with The Hamptons International Film Festival. This is an opportunity to offer Southampton a diverse lineup of quality independent film, crowd-pleasing classics and family entertainment."

"For nearly 10 years, The Hamptons International Film Festival has been showcasing high profile and independent films at the UA Theater during our festival in October," said Hamptons International Film Festival Director Anne Chaisson. "We have long wanted to create programs from Montauk to Southampton and with this partnership, our dream of showcasing film, expanding our educational program, as well as producing our signature 'Conversations with' throughout the year can finally become reality.

About Southampton Center

Southampton Center, located at 25 Jobs Lane in the heart of Southampton Village, provides a dynamic venue to present quality programming through partnerships with world-class artists, performers, educators and cultural institutions. Acting as stewards of one of the most iconic and beloved buildings in the Hamptons, our primary mission is to restore and renovate this historic landmark for future generations while serving as a hub to strengthen arts and culture for our entire community. Plans are currently underway with world-renowned architecture firm, Machado and Silvetti for a complete renovation and adaptive reuse of this historic property – bringing a piece of Southampton's unique history into the modern era.

About The Hamptons International Film Festival

The Hamptons International Film Festival was founded in 1993 to celebrate independent film- long, short, fiction and documentary - and to introduce a unique, varied spectrum of international films and filmmakers to the public. The Festival is committed to exhibiting films that express fresh voices and differing global perspectives, with the hope that these programs will enlighten audiences, provide invaluable exposure for filmmakers and present inspired entertainment for all. Taking place among the charming seaside historic villages of Long Island's East End, the Hamptons International Film Festival's intimate, informal atmosphere makes the festival an ideal destination for cinephiles. For more information about the Festival, visit our website at www.hamptonsfilmfest.org.
